LADIES' BIBLE STUDY – 10 AM

All the ladies are invited to join in and attend the ladies' Bible Study classes. Lesson by Sandra Engelbrecht.

PRAYER REQUESTS

Please pray for the members in our congregation who are in need of God's grace, healing and strength through difficult times. Please pray for Taida Marembo (Geraldine's mother), Petro and Kate, as they are going through a very difficult time. We ask you to include their families in your prayers for a source of strength and comfort as they support their loved ones.

We also need to thank God for the many blessings He grants us every day.

BIRTHDAYS

There are no birthdays or anniversaries this week. If we miss your birthday or anniversary, please notify Braam so that he can update the registers.

WELCOME

We welcome all visitors this morning. We believe that you will be blessed as we worship God. Please feel free to ask any questions regarding our worship or about God's Word.

POT-LUCK LUNCH

There will be a potluck lunch NEXT Sunday, 22nd of March, after worship, at 12H00. Please bring your favorite dish and stay for a time of fellowship, while enjoying a meal. Ladies on duty are Gill Brandstetter and Pam Share.

PERSUASIVE ARGUMENTS

by Hugh DeLong

We are drowning in a sea of false information. The internet can be useful, but it appears to overwhelmingly contain bad and misleading information. If you do a quick search for almost anything, the titles that are present for you to read contain countless hyperboles: "This destroys all...", "This changes everything we knew about..." Whether it be about history, science, or religion – 'everything' that was known by anybody up to a few years (moments?) ago is wrong.

These are especially prevalent on YouTube. Here, in Colossians 2: 4, Paul warned us about 'persuasive arguments' that lead us away from revealed truth. Jesus is the way, the truth and the life (John 14: 6). The chosen apostles were led into all truth (John 16: 13). We have been warned many times within the New Testament revelation about false teachers (I Timothy 4: 1 - 5; II Timothy 3: 1 - 5, 13; II Thessalonians 2: 3; 9 - 12; II Peter 2: 1; I John 4: 1, 6; etc., etc.!).

As Paul was coming to the end of his life, he instructed Timothy: "You, however, continue in the things you have learned and become convinced of knowing from whom you have learned them" (II Timothy 3: 14). Many of you will immediately remember that this was the introduction to Paul's statement: "All Scripture is inspired by God and profitable for teaching, for reproof, for correction and for training in righteousness, so that the man of God may be adequately equipped for every good work (II Timothy 3: 16 - 17).

For us, we simply cannot believe everything we read without knowing the source of such information. Men who have no real credentials can (and will and do) write articles and arguments. Do you know from whom you have learned what you believe?

UNCOVERING GUILT

by Zeke Flores

In Genesis 44:16, Judah says, "God has uncovered your servants' guilt." He isn't referring to the silver cup. He's referring to the sin they committed against Joseph years earlier. Judah recognizes that God is bringing hidden things into the open.

This is a significant moment in the brothers' spiritual journey. They finally stop blaming circumstances and acknowledge their moral responsibility. God often works this way. He brings truth to the surface so that healing can begin.

This teaches us that confession is not merely admitting wrongdoing. It is aligning ourselves with God's perspective. When Judah acknowledges guilt, he is stepping into honesty, humility and readiness for transformation.

If God is surfacing something in your life - a pattern, a wound, a sin - don't resist it. He reveals it in order to redeem. Honesty is where healing begins.
