"GOOD" ACCORDING TO WHOM? by Shane Williams

Too often people look in the wrong places when they're searching for role models. We look for someone who is a good athlete, one who earns a large salary, or one who commands respect because of their leadership skills.

This seems to be society's recipe for a modern hero. When we look only at these characteristics for someone who is "good," we fail to see that "godly" is rarely considered important.

The world has quite a twisted view of what it considers to be "good." People may talk about good movies, good books, or good morals, but they may be anything but good by God's standards, which is the only standard that really matters.

In Psalms 112 we see a clear set of guidelines for what makes a person good. According to the psalmist, a good man fears the Lord, delights in God's commands (Psalms 112: 1) and is gracious, compassionate and righteous (Psalms 112: 4). He is generous and exercises discretion (Psalms 112: 5). He is unshakable in his faith and he has no fear, because his trust is in God (Psalms 112: 6 - 8).

Are you looking to be a good man or woman? In a society where so many are anything but godly, how can we set the right example? Look at Psalm 112 again. It's a pattern we all need to follow if we want to be "good" in God's sight and make a difference in our world.

JUST A BIT OF HUMOR

One student said, "My teacher is the best. He can go days without eating."
The second said, "My teacher has so much self-control, he can go days without sleep."
The third said, "My teacher is so wise that he eats when he's hungry and sleeps when he's tired."

"Never criticize someone until you have walked a mile in their shoes. That way, when you criticize them, you're a mile away, and you'll have their shoes."

Psalm 112

- ¹ Praise the Lord. Blessed are those who fear the Lord, who find great delight in his commands.
- ² Their children will be mighty in the land; the generation of the upright will be blessed.
- ³ Wealth and riches are in their houses, and their righteousness endures forever.
- ⁴ Even in darkness, light dawns for the upright, for those who are gracious, compassionate and righteous.
- ⁵ Good will come to those who are generous and lend freely, who conduct their affairs with justice.
- ⁶ Surely the righteous will never be shaken. They will be remembered forever.
- ⁷ They will have no fear of bad news. Their hearts are steadfast, trusting in the Lord.
- ⁸ Their hearts are secure, they will have no fear. In the end, they will look in triumph on their foes.
- ⁹ They have freely scattered their gifts to the poor, their righteousness endures forever. Their horn will be lifted high in honour.
- ¹⁰ The wicked will see and be vexed. They will gnash their teeth and waste away. The longings of the wicked will come to nothing.
